

NCCB SPRING PERFORMANCE NOTIFICATION

Dear Parents and Ballet Students:

I am very excited to announce that our Spring Performance this year will be a two-part showcase of “Les Sylphides” for Level 5 & 6 and “Four Seasons” for Levels 1 – 6 to showcase all our dancers’ hard work in classes this year. Taking part in a performance of this nature is an extremely exciting and rewarding experience for children that also requires a lot of work in the weeks ahead and commitment, dedication, and teamwork throughout the rehearsal process. The choreography is built upon at every rehearsal, and as such, students cannot be absent except for illness, injury, or family emergency. Please limit the number of conflicts as much as possible as I reserve the right to withhold students from the performance who show themselves unprepared, without return of fees. With that said, I strongly encourage you to have your child participate. They have grown so much through their technique classes, and a performance of this nature pushes them in new ways artistically and stylistically for the specific repertoire at hand. I enjoy watching how their participation in each show challenges their creativity and skill and elevates them to the next level with their peers.

The rehearsals will be held on Friday evenings, starting in early March, between 5:00 – 7:00 p.m., with some solo rehearsals possibly held on weekday/end afternoons. Not all students may be called to the full rehearsal time. As the rehearsal process unfolds and based heavily on information received from conflict forms and which dances are being choreographed, I will send specific rehearsal times with as much advanced notice as possible. I try to limit our extra rehearsals for Level 1 – 3 (the majority early on will be taught in their class time). The performance fee includes rehearsals, sets, costumes, one tee shirt, one DVD, venue, sound, janitorial services, and admission for all friends and family. Optional extra video and extra tee shirt orders may be added onto the base fee, per your choice.
